Ramstein SUMMER CAMP 2009

Male and female places available on the above camp 18-25 July. Cost £180 covering air fare etc. A further £60 for essential expenses plus £50 and 50 euros spending money. Applications required by 14th April latest.

GREEN CAMP - 24-26 April

It is intended to hold the first of the Wing's Green Camps on the above date at Penhale, the object of the activity is to start training cadets in the activities within ACP 16 Fieldcraft. On future camps these skills will be developed with further training, and participation in exercises on various training areas.

As part of the weekend there will also be a separate course for up to 40 cadets to complete the initial weapon handling and testing on the L98, and if successful complete live firing on the 30m Barrack range. This course will be controlled by Sqn/Ldr Johns and a team of weapon instructors. Interested cadets should have passed their names to Sqn Ldr Windo.

Gliding

Four cadets enjoyed a good day's gliding at Predannack this month with 3-4 flights each. However, arrangements had been made for 7 to attend and transport was arranged accordingly. Cadets are reminded that if they commit to something or put their name forward for an activity they must endeavour to attend. If for any reason it is impossible for you to attend an event, please let us know in good time so that your place can be given to another cadet.

Promotions

Congratulations to Cadet Sarah Giblin who has been promoted to Corporal.

Examinations

Congratulations to the following Cadets: Cpl Michael Russell and Cpl Danny Leech have qualified as Senior Cadets by obtaining a pass in the Senior Cadet Examination and Cpl Perran Stephens has qualified as a Leading Cadet by obtaining a pass in the Leading Cadet Examination.

Duchy Marathon

The Cornwall Athletic Club was very grateful for the assistance of the cadets at the drinks stations during the Duchy Marathon in March and has made a kind donation of £100 towards Squadron funds. Thank you to all who participated.
